

The Women's & Children's Hospital Foundation invites you to the third lecture in our

2009 New Science Seminar Series

making the difference

Come and meet South Australia's best young scientists (Young Investigators Award finalists)

"Using the internet to increase physical activity in teenagers with cerebral palsy – are you kidding?"

Dr Carol Maher PhD - School of Health Sciences, University of South Australia

When 22nd July, 2009 10:30am – 11:30am

Where Queen Victoria Lecture Theatre
Ground floor of the Queen Victoria Building at the Women's & Children's Hospital, 72 King William Rd, North Adelaide

Tea and coffee provided

Gold coin donation appreciated

For more information contact:
rani.clark@wchfoundation.org.au or phone (08) 8464 7900

