Disability, Mental Health & Aged Care Services

AWARENESS RALLY

1pm Sunday, 28th February
depart Victoria Square

Seeing RED over poor services and low funding for children in need, adults and the elderly?

A day for all SA to unite and demand 'a fair go'

The rally will leave Victoria Square at 1pm and go along King William St to Parliament House ending with a few short speeches

Dress up in red, bring placards and balloons to make it a party

The Awareness Rally is your chance during the election campaign to tell our leaders not to ignore the crisis in disability, aged care and mental health services. Their priorities need to change.

dignity for disability (d4d) is the political party for those who believe in 'a fair go' for everyone. d4d is a human rights based organisation that aims at ensuring representation in Parliament for people with disabilities, their families and carers, and to reform the system that has led to the social crisis in disability and mental health. d4d's goal is to ensure dignity through choice.
