

*Dangerously
Nude*

Georgia WoMoon Turner

Dangerously Nude

A contemporary and exploratory spotlight of the inner workings of an intelligent schizophrenic mind. There are short stories, witty poems, and essays as well as social commentary. It rolls around at a furious pace. With the focus on awareness of what was once mysterious. What are the voices that schizophrenic people hear? What indeed constitutes a well schizophrenic? As the focus is often on the illness only.

If you have a family member, a friend with a diagnoses, are a doctor or work in the field, you will find this work fascinating. Included also is a clarity of the two twelve step programs N.A and A.A. decoding the two society structures in a unique way. Schizophrenic people live on another dimension. Voicing psychosis leads to the correct handling of Pandora's Box, often with humour. Dangerously Nude encapsulates a moment in history for schizophrenic people, misunderstood for so long.

www.georgiawomoonturner.com

Book Launch

Friday 4th June, 7.30pm

SA Writers Centre, Rundle Street
187 Rundle Street Adelaide SA 5000

RSVP to 8232 6223 to Georgie WoMoon by 28th May 2010