

DIGNITY for Disability Inc

Dignity for Disability d4d) and the Disability Advocacy and Complaints Service of SA Inc. are inviting you to attend a consultation on the proposed National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS)

The results of these consultations will be summarised and submitted to the Productivity Commission.

When: 28th of July 2010 from 10:00 AM until 2:30 PM

Where: Disability Information and Resource Centre (DIRC)
195 Gilles Street, Adelaide

Agenda:

- | | |
|----------|---|
| 10:00 AM | Brief introduction to the idea of the scheme |
| 10:15 AM | Who should be eligible for such a scheme?
How should eligibility be assessed?
Over what kind of time should people receive support through this scheme? |
| 11:00 AM | What kind of services should be provided through the scheme?
Should informal arrangements be part of the scheme? |
| 11:30 AM | Coffee Break |
| 11:45 AM | Should people also receive income support, i.e. The Disability Support Pension?
How can we ensure that application and eligibility is dealt with in a fair manner?
What kind of safeguards should be implemented? |
| 12:45 PM | Lunch |
| 1:15 PM | How should the scheme be financed? Who should pay?
Who should administer the scheme?
How should existing services change? Should there be a self management option?
Who should assist people to get access to services?
Would such a system assist in changes to service culture, and is that needed? |
| 2:20 PM | Summary |
| 2:30 PM | Finish |

If you wish to attend RSVP by 26th July to Leonie on 8297 3500. Please let us know if you have any special requirements for lunch or if you need assistance.
Hope to see you there!

Monika Baker, Systemic Advocate DACSSA, and Rick Neagle, President d4d