

Director DIRC

In the last few years The Disability Information and Resource Centre (DIRC) has taken an exciting new direction and is looking for an energetic and passionate individual to lead a dedicated team into its next phase of evolution.

Based in Adelaide, DIRC has an enviable reputation as a statewide information service provider on all aspects of disability in relevant and progressive new ways.

This role offers a unique opportunity to drive some significant outcomes for and make a valuable contribution to the empowerment of people with a disability in South Australia.

Reporting to the Board you will work with them to set the strategy and effectively deliver on it through the management of DIRC's core services which include:

- The Path Brokerage Service
- The Library and Information Service
- Disability and Ageing Expos
- Consulting and Auditing

You will also be able to use your extensive levels of initiative to explore other opportunities that will broaden the scope of opportunities for people with a disability and help DIRC increase its revenue and profitability.

Applications should address the requirements detailed in the Position Description available at www.dircsa.org.au or by email emma@dircsa.org.au or telephone (08) 8236 0555.

Applications close on Friday 12th November 2010 and should be addressed to:
The Director, DIRC, 195 Gilles Street, Adelaide 5000.

People with a disability are encouraged to apply.
