Rundle Mall is set to shine with the celebration of the International Day of People with a Disability Showcase!

This year, DIRC, the Disability Information & Resource Centre, celebrates the achievements, experiences and contributions of people with a disability in South Australia's premier destination and meeting place – Rundle Mall!

The awe-inspiring IDPwD Rundle Mall Showcase, hosted by DIRC will be on this Friday 3 December 2011, near the Rundle Malls Balls.

An amazing event not to be missed, the IDPwD Rundle Mall showcase will be officially opened by Adelaide's Lord Mayor, Stephen Yarwood, followed by Hot Tutti's exhilarating performance.

"The IDPwD Rundle Mall Showcase is focused on promoting a positive image of people with a disability, empowering, educating and involving people with a disability and the South Australian community in celebration to raise awareness of disability," said DIRC Chief Executive, Sandy Iussa.

Entertained by the remarkable Weekend Warriors Band, "Riverstock Music Fest", the warriors will be bustling it up with music from Daddy Cool to Snow Patrol!

South Australian disability service providers, Interwork, SCOSA, Les Brazier Special Vehicles and more will be exhibiting, providing information and awareness of disability and the benefits of people with a disability in every aspect of political, social, economic and cultural life!

Adelaide's most prominent chef, Ayhan Erkook, Celcius Restaurant and Bar "the most anticipated restaurant opening of the year" will feature his pinnacle moment of Liquid Nitrogen manifestation, along with the exquisite veggie patch dish sample of a culinary superstar!

Roving Entertainers, Chef on silts and Cop on a Unicycle, Circus Elements and Daisy the Traditional Clown will exuberate with popular attraction!

Uniquely on Rundle Mall, an event not to be missed!
