

Creative? Disabled? Looking to increase your arts-business skills?

Are you a creative person who needs skills in networking and planning events?

Do you identify as having a disability?

Do you want business skills that compliment your creative passions?

The Disability and Arts Transition Team (DATT) and the Community Arts Network of SA Inc. (CAN SA) invite disabled artists and arts-workers to join in training that contributes to a Course in Business Skills for Creative People (Code 40594SA).

Only 12 places are available SO BE QUICK AND REGISTER!

The training will be delivered over three days (10am to 4pm each day) and is nationally accredited. If you successfully complete the course you will be awarded a Statement of Attainment that is nationally recognised.

No prior qualifications are needed for you to undertake this workshop.

The training aims to

- ⇒ Improve your skills and capabilities
- ⇒ Boost project management quality
- ⇒ Offer opportunities to network and share ideas
- ⇒ Learn in an environment that supports Auslan
- ⇒ Build your self esteem, confidence and knowledge.

The training opportunity will offer participants the opportunity to earn qualifications in two modules within a Course in Business Skills for Creative People (Code 40594SA). This is a nationally recognised program for people who volunteer and work in the arts, cultural and community sector in regional Australia.

The modules The People Factor (CUTPH08B) and Plan and Program Events (CVPPE06B) will be offered over three days (November 2, 3 and 8, 2011) between 10am and 4pm each day. Workshops are hands on, practical and designed to be relevant to participants.

If you are a disabled artist, arts worker, volunteer, someone who works within communities or someone who would like to, this course is for you. DATT is able to support participants further by offering each module for a fee of only $25/module (usually it can cost up to $150). Undertaking both the modules offered will cost $50.

If you are interested in taking part in this training opportunity should contact Martin at DATT by email (msawtell@cansa.net.au), mobile 0405 225 201 or phone 08 8231 0900 to receive an enrolment form.
